

12

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE
OFFICE OF PUBLIC INFORMATION
Washington 25, D. C.

HOLD FOR RELEASE
UNTIL 7 PM (EDT)
TUESDAY, JUNE 16, 1953

U. S. CASUALTIES IN KOREAN AREA (NO. 835)

The Department of Defense today announced the following battle casualties -- killed, wounded, missing -- in the Korean area:

ILLINOIS

KILLED IN ACTION

ARMY:

Corporal Elmer B. Olinger, Jr., son of Mr. & Mrs. Elmer Olinger, Sr., 123rd and McCarthy Road, Lemont.

WOUNDED

ARMY:

Private First Class Charles E. Bergland, husband of Mrs. Alice E. Bergland, Route 1, Wyanet.

Private Geno De Marchi, son of Mr. & Mrs. John De Marchi, 11936 Lafayette Ave., Chicago.

Private Herbert L. Gutzler, husband of Mrs. Fern E. Gutzler, Bluford.

Sergeant First Class Fred J. Hapeman, husband of Mrs. Elizabeth S. Hapeman, 3846 Jackson Blvd., Chicago.

Sergeant George M. Hoffman, son of Mr. & Mrs. George Hoffman, 1422 North 40th St., East Saint Louis.

Sergeant Guenther E. Kromrei, nephew of Bernhard Sonntag, 3124 North Clifton Ave., Chicago.

Private First Class Charles T. Nomady, Jr., of Chicago. He is the husband of Mrs. Janice C. Nomady, 703 Wyatt Ave., Stevens Point, Wisconsin.

Corporal William O. Pilcher, son of Mr. & Mrs. Edward E. Pilcher, 211 West King St., Fairfield. (Prev. Wounded & Ret. to Duty)

Corporal Kazimierz Zabinski, friend of Steve Sieczkowski, 3217 North Hamlin Ave., Chicago.

E N D