

12

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE
OFFICE OF PUBLIC INFORMATION
Washington 25, D. C.

HOLD FOR RELEASE
UNTIL 7 AM (EDT)
WEDNESDAY, JULY 1, 1953

U. S. CASUALTIES IN KOREAN AREA (NO. 846)

The Department of Defense today announced the following battle casualties -- killed, wounded, missing -- in the Korean area:

ILLINOIS

KILLED IN ACTION

ARMY:

Second Lieutenant James E. Ford, husband of Mrs. James E. Ford, 9631 South Greenwood Ave., Chicago.
Private Billy E. Reagan, son of Mrs. Grace B. Austin, 420 Elm St., Quincy.

WOUNDED.

ARMY:

Private First Class Aurelio Aviles, Jr., brother of Socorro Aviles, 1668 Indian Ave., Aurora.
Sergeant First Class Wilhelm Dahner, son of Mrs. Mary Dahner, 3619 West 85th St., Chicago.
~~Sergeant Billy J. Fields, grandson of Ross Brewster, 519 North Poplar St., Centralia.~~
Corporal Frank C. Kukuczka, son of Mrs. Mary Kukuczka, 5011 South Kildare Ave., Chicago.
Corporal Leo C. Linton, grandson of Grover C. Linton, Smithboro.
Private Thaddeus C. Rekar, brother of Mrs. Genevive A. Wanta, 1110 California Ave., Chicago.

INJURED

ARMY:

Private First Class Glenn W. Ranger, brother of Mrs. Dorothy Kozar, 7510 South Odell Ave., Chicago.

MISSING IN ACTION

ARMY:

Private Thaddeus S. Bobowiec, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bobowiec, 2322 West Walton St., Chicago.
Private Richard Veld, son of Nick E. Veld, 167th and Vincennes Ave., South Holland.

END